

SYLLABUS :-

Prerequisites: None
Course Contents
Industrial revolution in England and Welfare state as an aftermath; Spread of industrialization to other countries; Colonization and its impact on world economy with special reference to Indo-British economic relations; Comparative Development of India, USA and Japan in the Pre-Colonial and Colonial Era; Post-War and Post-Colonial Developments; Role of Land Reforms and Education; Acceleration of the Decline of Laissez Faire or Unregulated Capitalism; Rise and Fall of Soviet Union; From Bipolar to Unipolar Economy; Impact of Globalization and Resurgence of Market Economy: Country Experiences including China, Japan, USA; Economic Reforms and Renewed Interest in Welfare Measures.