

SYLLABUS :-

Steps in design methodology through small studio problems. Relevant literature review, similar case studies, programming and formulation of concept in architectural studio assignments. Generation of Bubble Diagram and Activity Proximity Matrix to establish a functional relationship among various spaces. Application of climatic data, basic structural and social consideration in architectural design. Field study tour of historical buildings with emphasis on measured drawing.

Suggested design assignments :- Primary school, residential units, restaurant, guesthouse etc. with exterior and interior perspective views and model.