

SYLLABUS :-

Prehistoric civilization - Mohenjodaro and Harappan settlements - geographic, climatic, geological and social backgrounds - materials, techniques of construction and later Vedic settlements - development of architectural principles and materials used; Buddhist and later Jaina phases - rock cut architectural details and technology involved, materials of construction; Early Hindu Group - Gupta architecture and Aihole Group; Evolution of Indo-Aryan and Dravidian styles; Indo-Islamic styles - religious background, social condition, available building materials, import of foreign technology, climatic considerations, different types of color decorations, regional styles.